Overall grade B, based on 8 of 8 areas.

- Security: Good ● Speed: Poor ● Accessibility: Needs work
- Privacy and consent: Good ● Search engines (SEO): Good ● Email deliverability: Good
- Social sharing: Good ● HTTP and hosting: Good

The most important fixes

1

SPEED · HIGH PRIORITY

Cut down the scripts that run while the page loads

Why it matters: On a phone the page was too busy to respond for 625 ms while loading (target: under 200 ms), so taps and scrolling feel sluggish.

Who would fix it: your web developer

2

ACCESSIBILITY · HIGH PRIORITY

Make keyboard navigation follow what is on screen

Why it matters: Visitors who use the keyboard instead of a mouse land on items they cannot see, so they lose their place.

Who would fix it: your web developer

3

EMAIL DELIVERABILITY · MEDIUM PRIORITY

Stop others from sending email that pretends to be from your domain

Why it matters: The domain does not yet tell mail providers to reject fake email using your address, so scam messages that look like they come from you can still reach inboxes. Enforcing it also helps your real mail avoid spam folders.

Who would fix it: whoever manages your domain's DNS (often your web developer or IT provider)
